10 CENTS PER WEEK THE DAILY INTELLIGENCER.

BRIEF MENTIONINGS.

Events in and About the City Given in a Nutshell.

Matinee at the Grand this afternoon. Grand to-night—"My Innocent Boy." Circuit court will be in session to-day.

The stone masons have begun work on the erection of the new episcopal residence for Bishop Donahue, at the corner of Thirtieth and Byron streets.

The city gas board has advanced the price of its coke from two and one-half to three cents per bushel, on account of the increased price of the coal it uses for gas making.

Emma J. Behanna yesterday swore out a warrant before Squire Rogers, charging Van Behanna with stealing from her a gold ring, with diamond setting. The case will be heard this morning.

A dance was given at the Pythian Castle last night for the benefit of the fund to entertain visiting delegates to the state grand castle of the Knights of the Golden Eagle, which meets here in September.

An Island next door quarrel was aired in Squire Rogers' court yesterday. O. V. Burke was put under bond to keep the peace, and the case against Stella Davis was dismissed. The complainant in both cases was Jennie Grimith.

Yesterday, in Part I, of the circuit court, Judge Harvey, in the case of T. M. Darrah vs the Wheeling Ice & Storage Company, there was a trial by jury, resulting in a verdict for the plaintiff for the sum of $463.50, on breach of contract. There was a motion for a new trial.

Superintendent Burkett, of the Ohio county home, and four commissioners and their clerk, T. C. Moffatt, were in town Tuesday morning, and they went down to the county home at Arden to investigate how the county home is run in Washington county.—Washington Reporter.

Colonel William Ellingham brought back from Florida the skin of an immense rattler, length six feet five inches and ten inches wide. The snake was over seven feet long. It was of the diamond rattler species, and there are yet nine rattles attached. The skin is on exhibition at Nell & Ellingham's.

When Will Gutman, the men's furnisher, opened his Market street store yesterday morning, he discovered that during the night an unwelcome visitor had depleted the cash drawer in a roller top desk of $1.03. The burglar entered the store by a rear window, and evidently wanted cash only, as nothing else was disturbed.

Suburban residents, particularly those at Echo Point, are indignant over the attempts made to poison their dogs. Within the past week dogs belonging to Messrs. James Henderson, J. F. Shirk, Jesse McCausland and others have been poisoned, those belonging to the former two dying from the effects. Mr. Shirk's was a very valuable bird dog. The poisoner is said to be known.

To-morrow night will be a gala occasion in the history of Black Prince lodge No. 19, Knights of Pythias. Not only will the unusually large number of eighteen candidates be put through the third degree, but in addition there will be a hundred or more Pythian visitors from several Ohio-side towns, including East Liverpool, Steubenville, Martin's Ferry, Ballaure and St. Clairsville. The fame of Black Prince's great working team has gone forth and it is most unusual not to have a score or more of visiting Knights on hand for initiations.

Passenger Agent Tomlinson of the Pan Handle, is booking many Wheeling people for the trip to Paris this season. Recently he has booked several from New Castle, Morgantown, Wellsburg, Quaker City and other tri-state towns, in addition to the local people going. Notwithstanding the rush, he states there is still room for more tourists, especially those taking the Cook tours, which he represents here. An especially cheap and attractive trip is the Cook $150 excursion, twenty-five days from New York; giving second cabin passage over the pond and several days' stay at Paris.

In Clerk Robertson's Office.

Yesterday, in Clerk Robertson's office, Wilhelm Armbruster qualified as administratrix of Anton Armbruster; bond $100, with C. Menckmiller as surety.

Louis Bertschy qualified as executor of the will of Margaret Williams; bond $200, with J. P. Rogers as surety.

Marriage licenses were issued to: Jacob Courath, aged 37, widower, of Marietta, O., and Katie Vegelsang, aged 18, widow, of Wheeling.

Alex M. McGlumphy, aged 35, of Dallas, W. Va., and Maggie E. Billick, aged 26, of Dallas.

Roumanus Antoon, aged 23, of Wheeling, and Mary Negolia, aged 21, of Wheeling.

KRAUS BROS.

Another Step Forward In

Men's and Boys' CLOTHING.

When the well-dressed critical public becomes enthusiastic over a display of clothing, it is fair to presume that there is something more than ordinary merit about it.

When our spring styles were spread out for careful inspection they found so many excellent features in the numerous examples, they were unanimous in declaring it the grandest and most attractive collection of clothing ever exhibited in Wheeling.

While the selection of patterns is an indispensable feature to the weaver of fashionable clothing, there exists no question so important as producing garments of the proper FIT, MAKE AND STYLE, producing thereby an exclusive individuality of the highest order.

We ask no more in price for our well made suits of exceptional qualities than others ask for inferior grades that possess none of the merits of ours. No adequate idea can be formed of these garments unless by personal inspection.

I'M SHOT

All over with silk—the balance of me is wool. My general appearance is modest, yet handsome. I'm stoutly made and all right from collar to foot. Put me to any kind of use and I will serve you well and keep my color. They sell me here for $15.00 per suit—that's my only trouble. I am worth more. One hates to be sold so cheap, don't you know. If you don't like me, there are lots of other suits lying near me for $7.50, $10.00 and $12.00. Good, honest fellows, only not quite as good looking as I am. I'm going too cheap. I'm made of highest grade Worsteds, Cheviots and Thibets, with fine Farmer's Satin and Serge Linings. If I were in some other stores I'd sell for $20.00 sure. I don't know where I shall be to-morrow. To-day I'm with
